Many Of Provisions Of Existing Law Are Sustained-- Iron Products On Dutiable List At Twenty-Five Cents A Ton.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, D. C., April 12.—It is now up to the senate to fight out the requirements of the proposed tariff measure known as the Payne bill which came to the upper house last week after having been passed by the house of representatives.

Aldrich's Report.
Senator Aldrich's report this morning reported to the senate the majority report of the senate committee on finance which makes many important amendments to the bill as passed by the lower house. While the bill in its entirety was reported this morning, other equally important revenue producing features will come from the committee when the bill is taken up tomorrow.

Are Interwoven.
These important revenue features are so complicated and interwoven with the measure itself that they form an important part of the administrative portion of the bill and will be adopted later when the bill comes up for special consideration before the senate as a whole and when they are in better form for consideration than at present.

The Provision.
In general, the Aldrich amendments cover many important features of the Payne bill for a general part making decided reductions in the schedules as passed last week. Among the im-

TENTH SEASON OF AMERICAN LEAGUE

Was Opened Today With Games at Philadelphia and Washington—History of Pennant Races.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

New York, April 12.—Venturing permitting, the season of the American league will be opened today with Boston playing at Philadelphia and New York at Washington. Cleveland and St. Louis will open the season in the west with a game at St. Louis Wednesday and Chicago will open the same day at Detroit.

The present season is the tenth in the history of the American league. The cities that have been component parts of the league in the decade of its existence are Chicago, Milwaukee, Indianapolis, Detroit, Kansas City, Cleveland, Buffalo, Minneapolis, Philadelphia, Baltimore, St. Louis, Boston and New York. Chicago has won the pennant three times and Boston and Philadelphia have two pennants each to their credit.

Tail-enders in the American league have been St. Louis, once; Milwaukee, once; Minneapolis, once; Boston, once; New York, once; and Washington, three times. All American league circuits have been of eight towns. In 1903 Boston won 91 games and lost 47, creating a percentage of .659, the best ever established in the American league. The lowest percentage was .251 made by Washington in 1904.

The position at the finish from year to year of the American league cities is shown by the following figures:

Chicago—1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1, 1.	Average standing, 2.9.
Milwaukee—2, 8.	Average standing, 5.
Indianapolis—3.	Average standing, 6.
Detroit—1, 3, 7, 5, 7, 3, 6, 1, 1.	Average standing, 4.19.
Kansas City—5.	Average standing, 5.
Cleveland—6, 7, 5, 3, 4, 5, 3, 4, 2.	Average standing, 4.13.
Buffalo—7.	Average standing, 7.
Minneapolis—8.	Average standing, 8.
Philadelphia—1, 1, 2, 5, 1, 4, 2, 6.	Average standing, 3.18.
Baltimore—5, 8.	Average standing, 6.12.
St. Louis—2, 6, 6, 8, 5, 6, 4.	Average standing, 6.27.
Boston—2, 3, 1, 4, 8, 7, 5.	Average standing, 3.78.
New York—1, 2, 6, 2, 5, 8.	Average standing, 4.12.
Washington—6, 8, 8, 7, 7, 8, 7.	Average standing, 7.18.

Judging from the attendance at the preliminary and practice games the interest in the national game is as widespread this year as ever. Predictions have been made that this will be the banner year for the American league. According to the experts who have made a close study of the clubs, the race for the championship should be closer than that of last year, when Detroit, Cleveland and Chicago fought it out for first place to the very close of the season.

Detroit will take the field with about the same team that won the championship last season, with the exception of Downs, who played second base. Cleveland has been strengthened by the addition of old "Cy" Young to the pitching staff and looks like a championship possibility. The rest of the Cleveland team is practically unchanged. Louis Clerke has been added to the catching staff of the St. Louis Browns, which fact should materially benefit that aggregation. The Philadelphia Athletics are short of catchers, and the Chicago White Sox apparently has had the outfield broken up by the retirement of Feller Jones. The New York Highlanders expect much from their new manager, George S. Binkley, Fred Lake, manager of the Boston club, has practically a new team on his hands. The Washington club also is something of an unknown quantity.

Athletics' New Ball Park.
Philadelphia, Pa., April 12.—The opening of the American league season here today, with a game between the Athletics and the Boston team, also marked the formal opening and dedication of the new ball park, the largest and finest of its kind in the country. The park represents an outlay of half a million dollars. The seating capacity of the grandstands and bleachers is 23,000, with standing room accommodation for about 27,000 more. The stands are of handsome architectural design and are built entirely of steel and concrete. The opening was attended by President Ben Johnson and other leading lights of the American league.

He said today that his studies in America have convinced him that Wisconsin is far in the lead of the other states in progressive legislation and fair administration.

WILL BRING CASE TO THE SUPREME COURT

City of Superior Wants Railroads to Pay Their Part of Improvements.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]

Superior, Wis., April 12.—The city claims the right to compel railroads to pay special improvement taxes. The question is now in the courts and will probably go to the supreme court for final adjudication. Judge Parker of the municipal court has decided in favor of the city in the suit against the Terminal Railway company in which the city seeks to collect $471 due on account of sidewalk and street improvement. The company refused on the ground that the property is not taxable for such purposes and this question has always been a bone of contention here. In many instances improvements have been made by railroad companies themselves and the question on that account has never been fought out in the courts. Its continual reappearance with the increase of special improvements during the last few years, however, caused the council to instruct the city attorney to go ahead and bring suit for collection.

Seven young men of the East End of this city are under arrest accused of one of the most revolting crimes that has appeared on the court calendar here for years. It is charged that they detained Florence Howell, a girl of about 20, for immoral purposes against her will. The police accuse the youths of "getting her drunk or else drugged—the girl says she does not know which—and then strangling her. Miss Howell's mother is dead and her father works nights. She claims that she was in such a dazed condition after the kangaroo court with her that she spent the whole night in a wagon box which was in the building being painted.

THE SOUL'S HOPE OF IMMORTALITY

WAS SUBJECT OF SPLENDID SERMON BY REV. LAUGHLIN.

DEATH ONLY AN EXODUS

Or Fading of the Spirit From the Bondage of This Earthly Body—Death is a Home-Coming.

After a very fine musical program at the Presbyterian church, Rev. J. W. Laughlin delivered a particularly excellent Easter sermon, choosing as a topic, "The Hope of Immortality." The texts of the discourse were taken, one from the book of Job in the Old Testament, in which the doubts of the Old Testament people are expressed, and the other, from the New Testament, wherein, these doubts, said by Laughlin, "As soon as a man really finds time to forget, for a little while, his cares and worries, and looks toward the stars, he then begins to really think and hope. As soon as a man does this he begins to think and hope for a future life, and these thoughts and hopes cause finally the belief in immortality."

"In some form or other, Easter has been celebrated, and known to all men. This hope of immortality has been felt in the hearts of men from the beginning of time. The first to give an eloquent shape to this hope of immortality was the preservation of the body, but believed in a future condition and a Judgment Day. The great pyramids and tombs for the embalmed bodies show the belief of these people that immortality is connected with the preservation of the human form."

"This idea of immortality was prevalent among some of the Greeks and was most strongly emphasized by Socrates and Plato. 'The religion of Jesus Christ gives the answer of this hope to the soul. It was the word said to Mary and Martha as they wept over the death of their brother, 'Thy brother shall rise again; I am the resurrection and the life.' Paul says: 'We look not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen, for the things which are seen, are but temporal.'"

"We have tried to confirm this belief by our philosophy. We have the theory of the conservation of energy in sources. All things that exist today, the beginning exist today. Things change their form but they do not cease to be. We see a forest in a certain place, but when we go to the place, few years later, the forest may be gone, but it has not ceased to exist for we will find it in lumber, some ship, or in some other shape. We go to the hillsides and get the coal and put it in the furnace to heat our home, but there is not one atom of coal that has been burned, but it has only been changed to heat."

"Not one thing ever dies. Everything that has existed will be in existence, and that which exists now, will exist. We also, confirm our belief by the advance toward perfection, of all things around us. Everything as it is today is far more perfect than it was centuries ago. Now if there is a God in the universe who can develop such a state in the things about us; why can He not also make us immortal? There is in each of us ideals and aspirations and we believe that this God will develop those ideals and hopes. We believe in immortality because we believe in the dissem and power of God."

"When sorrow comes we do not turn to our philosophy, but to the word of God. We rest our hopes of immortality on Him. 'There has been an effort made by science to produce additional evidence of the immortality of the soul by psychic means. Some things have come out of this. The question as to whether there are apparitions or not is practically a settled question and psychology has had a great deal to do with this. Are these so-called spirits, creations of the imagination? Was it a real thing or merely the imagination that he saw a figure representing him the devil? John or Ade was a rustic girl, who had no education, no knowledge of statesmanship or of military instruction, yet she thought that she heard voices and saw visions which commanded her to become the savior of her country. Was that voice, that instruction in military tactics which she received, imagination or the real thing? The disciples were assembled together in an upper room on the day after Christ's crucifixion, discussing the occurrence. The doors were closed that they might be safe from the Jews and while they were there, Jesus came suddenly into their midst. Was that the real thing, or a creature of their own imaginations? As for the fact that there are other indications that lead us to think that the spirit exists without the body. Take for instance, somnambulism. People do most wonderful things in this state."

"There is a saying that the spirit is a body-builder. The soul is building for itself a body in which it shall live long after this earthly body is dissolved. What sort of a body is it that the soul is building? We might as well wait until the time comes for the answer to that, and answer the question: 'What sort of a soul is building the body?' 'We find two or three figures of speech used in the Bible in speaking of 'death.' One is that it is a sleep. Jesus also says that it is an exodus—a traveling from the land of Israel, into a land where the soul is freed. The apostle says that death is like the launching of a ship, and Jesus again says it is a hibernation when we shall meet all our friends. The change of the soul at death is as the transition of the caterpillar into the butterfly. When we launch out on this unknown sea we will not land on a foreign shore, but those who have gone before will be there to greet us."

Fred Mayens spent Saturday in Janesville with friends.

Messrs. Ole and John Boyum went to Sun Prairie on Saturday for a visit with their parents and others.

Mrs. M. Broderick and Miss Fitzgerald and Wittwer were visitors in Janesville on Saturday. Mrs. F. C. Rione returned to her home Sun Prairie, Saturday, after a week's visit with Brodhead friends. Mrs. Elizabeth James and daughter, Marian, of Monroe, came to Brodhead, Saturday, to visit her brother, Mr. George W. Roderick and family.

J. C. Steinhilber of Monticello spent a part of Saturday in the city. Mesdames John Swan and Charles Cronk went to Jula, Saturday. Jim Boylan, of Janesville, spent Sunday in the city with his mother and other relatives.

Miss Emily Cunningham of Orfordville came Saturday for a short home visit. Rockwell Barnes was up from Chicago to spend Sunday with his mother.

Dr. George H. Mott, formerly a resident of this city, but now of Fort-ton, Iowa, arrived here Saturday noon to remain for a day or two. He removes soon to Boulder, Colo., where he will conduct a sanitarium for tuberculous patients.

A. W. Isaacson enters the employ of the International Harvester company today as an expert machinist. Roy Stadler has rented and moved his family into the residence recently vacated by Mr. C. A. Anderson and family.

EDGERTON.

Edgerton, April 11.—The Messrs. Elgeron and Adeline Quigley of Milwaukee are spending a few days with their parents here.

Miss Leo Thompson came out from Chicago Friday evening to spend Easter at the parental home.

The last of the series of K. P. dancing parties was given at Academy hall last Friday evening. A very pleasant evening is reported by those who attended. The out of town guests were: Will Shoemaker and sister, Miss Edna, and W. B. Tallman of Janesville, and C. O. Shinnon is very low at his home with pleurisy. For several days hopes of his recovery were entertained but owing to his advanced age it is doubtful if he can last many days.

The Messrs. Lucile and Kathleen Cullen and Miss Norma Harrington assisted in the Easter exercises at the Baptist church in Janesville last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roetho returned from Fenimore, Saturday evening after spending Easter week with Mr. Roetho's parents.

Emma, the nine year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wentworth is very low at her home with Bright's disease.

Mrs. Julia Lusk, an old resident here, died at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. L. Dickinson, Sunday night at 8:00 o'clock p. m. The funeral arrangements are not completed.

UGLY CHARGES AGAINST WU.

Pittsburg Officials Accuse Chinese Minister of 'Pernicious Activity.'

Pittsburg, Pa., Apr. 12.—Minister Wu Ting Fang, diplomatic representative of China to the United States, may be forced to retire from the diplomatic service, according to Pittsburg officials, as a result of his activity in connection with the arrest here recently of two Chinese dignitaries, against whom the charge of being suspicious persons later was withdrawn and the Chinamen freed. Richard Kelley, the Chinese expert of the local police force, declares he has unearthed letters written by Minister Wu to several Chinamen in this city who were prepared to appear against the two Chinamen. In these letters Minister Wu is said to have threatened his fellow countrymen with deportation if they in any way assisted American justice. The revelations regarding Minister Wu are the direct result of a demand for a full explanation regarding the arrest of the two Chinamen.

LOBBYING SUFFRAGISTS TO STORM SPRINGFIELD

Illinois Women Will Demand Votes at Municipal Elections from State's Legislators.

Chicago, Apr. 12.—To urge the state's lawmakers to pass a bill giving the women of Illinois the right to vote at all municipal elections 200 members of women's clubs in Chicago and Cook county will go to Springfield to-morrow morning on a special train.

A public hearing will be given the delegation Wednesday morning. Twenty-five members of the party have been chosen to speak before the assembly on the proposition, three minutes having been accorded each to present views.

The train will stop at Joliet, Pontiac, Bloomington, Ledington, Atlanta and Lincoln to take on delegations from the different women's club of those towns. There will also be several speakers with them.

The proposed lobbying for the bill is under the direction of the Illinois Equal Suffrage association, which has made the arrangements for the various delegations.

The Chicago Woman's club will send the largest delegation, its number being 30. The Endowed Woman's club will be represented by ten, and other organizations in Cook county which has a woman roster interested in social economics will have at least one representative.

Miss Jane Addams of Hull House will be chairman of the Chicago delegation and will introduce the speakers to the legislators. She will also address that body, as will also Mrs. Oliver W. Stewart, Miss Anna Nicholas, Mrs. Raymond Robins, Mrs. Catherine Vaughn McCulloch, Mrs. Mary McDowell, Mrs. William Hill, Mrs. Charles Hearnott, Mrs. E. W. Peattie, Miss Agnes Nestor, Miss Lillian Anderson, Dr. Caroline Hedger, Frances D. Everett, Mrs. James Witkowski, Mrs. William H. Thomas, Mrs. J. J. Sonstebj, Mrs. F. C. Stubbs, Miss Harriet Grim, Mrs. Henry M. Dunlap of Savoy, Mrs. Eugene Bacon of Decatur, and O. W. Stewart, Prof. Herbert Willett and Thomas C. MacMillan, president of the Men's Equal Suffrage league.

SOUTH FIGHTS MOSQUITOS.

War on Filas Also Part of Anti-Disease Campaign.

New Orleans, Apr. 12.—The entire south has notified the mosquito and the house fly that they are undesirable citizens and that under no circumstances will they be permitted to reside in, or frequent the inhabited communities. But the authorities have not been satisfied with declarations. Not much. They have not forgotten the lesson taught them in 1905, when the yellow fever came.

So, all over the south, in the smaller villages as well as in the bigger cities, the health authorities are opening an early campaign against the disseminators of all deadly diseases—the mosquito and the house fly. It has been demonstrated that the mosquito is not the only disease spreader. He does spread yellow fever. But the house fly has been tried and convicted of the crime of disseminating malaria, typhoid fever and several other diseases, no less deadly.

TAFT PRESSES THE BUTTON.

President Starts a Big Electrical Show at Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Apr. 12.—To show to the south and what is known as the "Louisville district" in Ohio, Indiana and Indiana, the progress of electricity, the Southern Electrical and Industrial exposition was opened at one o'clock this afternoon by President Taft, who pressed an electric button at Washington with the Kentucky congressional delegation and Congressman Cox of the Third Indiana district grouped about him.

The exposition, which has several thousand exhibits, is held in the First regiment armory. Its declared purpose is to teach the south how to light its cities, and for this the great building is ablaze with many thousands of lights and with many new devices in electricity.

CREPE REVIVES SCANDAL.

Mourning Placed on Door of Mock Marriage Pastor's Church.

Washington, Ind., Apr. 12.—Easter churchgoers were greeted yesterday morning by a "large" bunch of crepe flanking from the door when they approached the First Christian church, the pastor of which, Rev. Elmer E. Davidson, resigned his charge and fled Washington following charges of having victimized Miss Dunn Clark, daughter of former Mayor Hale Clark, by a mock marriage in St. Louis last December. With the crepe was a picture of the former pastor and a pair of baby shoes.

The finding the crepe and picture of the minister revived the scandal which has kept Washington in a state of excited gossip for a week.

Jews Defy Dr. Hirsch.

New York, Apr. 12.—The Federation of Jewish Organizations of the state of New York has thrown down the gauntlet to Dr. Emil G. Hirsch of Sinai Temple, Chicago, defying him to prove that the immigration of Russian Jews to this country ought to be prevented.

Explosion Blows Out.

Columbus, O., Apr. 12.—In a natural gas explosion here yesterday the front wall of a rooming house was blown out. John Welsh, a lodger in the room where the explosion took place, was dived of his coat, but did not receive a burn or scratch on his body.

MINERS HEAR OPERATORS PLAN TO REDUCE WAGES.

Per Cent. Cut, Says Rumor, is Contemplated by Anthracite Mine Owners.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Apr. 12.—There is a rumor here that the anthracite operators are to declare a ten per cent. reduction in the wages of all classes of mine workers based on the ground that as no three year agreement has been signed the business and industrial conditions of the country at this time do not warrant the high rate of wages paid.

It is said that this reduction will be accompanied by the statement that the prevailing rate of wages will be restored when, in the opinion of the operators, business conditions warrant it.

Efforts to trace this rumor to a definite source failed except to establish the fact that some of the local mining officials believe that such action would result in an agreement being speedily signed. They think the mine workers would then insist upon their officials signing the agreement without further delay.

Many of the mine workers, chiefly the older men and those having responsibilities, are disappointed because their officials did not cease all efforts to get the recognition of the union and sign the agreement which the operators offered.

Mahoning City, Pa., Apr. 12.—Meetings of locals of the United Mine Workers in the anthracite fields will be held this week to take a referendum vote on the question of accepting the offer of the operators.

If a canvass of the vote shows a majority in favor of the proposition, President Lewis and the tri-district presidents and secretaries will at once arrange a date with the coal road presidents to sign a long term agreement on behalf of the miners.

There is a growing sentiment among the men to enter into a three-year contract with the operators as such an agreement would expire in April, 1912, which is presidential year.

Ethan Allen Hitchcock Buried.

St. Louis, Apr. 12.—The funeral of Ethan Allen Hitchcock, former secretary of the Interior, took place today. The body arrived yesterday in a special car from Washington where he died Friday. Following services in the Second Presbyterian church this afternoon the body was buried in Bellefontaine cemetery.

Weston Leaves Toledo.

Toledo, O., Apr. 12.—Edward Weston, the pedestrian who spent Sunday here, resumed his trip to San Francisco at 12:05 this morning. A squad of police and a number of admirers in autos escorted him to the city limits. Weston is scheduled to reach Bryan, 50 miles west, tonight.

READ GAZETTE WANT ADS

"That Which is Worth Having, is Worth Asking For."

(Do not expect something for nothing.)

Yet this old adage is still true. If there is anything you particularly desire—is worth asking for—the chances are that you would ask for it if you felt assured that the asking would get it. Do you want any of the following? Check the mover as you read through and we will show you HOW to ask so as to get it for asking:

CHECK HERE.

- Antique Furniture.
- Slightly used Piano.
- Second Hand Cook Stove.
- Second Hand Heater.
- Second Hand Sewing Machine.
- Second Hand Phonograph.
- Second Hand Furniture.
- Second Hand Clothing.
- Second Hand Carriage.
- Second Hand Wagons.
- Dogs, Horses, Cows, Animals, Machines, Automobiles, Musical Instruments, Jobs.

First of all you must know exactly what you want, then you must ask EVERYBODY, and the way to ask everybody is through the GAZETTE WANT ADS.

Want ads go to 24,000 readers. In this great number of people you will find many who are anxious to rent, sell, buy, trade or exchange just the thing you ask for. If you were to call personally on 24,000 people today and ask them if they wished to exchange a good dog for a set of books, the chances are you would get what you asked for. The first question they would ask, however, is what kind of a dog or what kind of books, so therefore it is necessary to give a good description of the dogs or books or anything you have to exchange, sell, rent or buy, and the value or price.

We arrive at this conclusion: THAT WHICH IS WORTH HAVING IS WORTH ASKING FOR AND THE WAY TO ASK EVERYBODY IS THROUGH A GAZETTE WANT AD.

CONDENSED MILK

With the diversified products of the United States going to all parts of the civilized world it is interesting to note the fact that sixteen million dollars' worth of condensed milk has been exported from the United States during the past decade, 3 1/2 million dollars of it in the fiscal year 1908. China, Japan, the Philippine Islands, Korea, Australia, Russia, Portuguese Africa, Mexico, and all of the Central and South American states, Cuba, Santo Domingo, the British West Indies, Canada, and even the United Kingdom, are among the numerous purchasers of this comparatively new and rapidly growing export from the United States.

The exportations of "milk" from the United States, as reported by customs officers to the Bureau of Statistics of the Department of Commerce and Labor, have shown a very rapid growth in recent years, the total value being in 1895, $219,785; in 1898, $671,670; in 1900, $1,139,402; in 1905, $2,160,616; and in 1908, $2,455,180. This rapid growth, together with the wide distribution, has led the Bureau of Statistics to an inquiry regarding the details of this growing trade, the result of the inquiry making it apparent that practically all of the milk so exported goes in condensed form, probably not more than 1 per cent in the natural state.

The oriental and tropical countries are the chief sections of the world to which this product of the industries of the United States is distributed. Cuba was the largest purchaser in 1908, the total value of exports of this article to Cuba in that year being $906,968; Japan ranking next with $666,370; Canada, $177,050; the Philippine Islands, $167,002; China, $87,034; Mexico, $79,053; British South Africa, $76,923; Hongkong, $39,146; Asiatic Russia, $35,001; and Portuguese Africa, $22,710. The value of the exports of this single article to the Philippine Islands in 1908—$167,002—is more than our total exports of all kinds of merchandise to the Philippines in 1898, a decade earlier, when the total merchandise, domestic and foreign, exported to those islands was $127,801, of which $371 was condensed milk. With American occupation the shipments of this article to the Philippines increased rapidly, being in the fiscal year 1899, $4,210; in 1900, $20,235; in 1903, $30,222; in 1904, $135,746; and in 1908, as already stated, $167,002. To Cuba the growth has also been rapid, the value of condensed milk exported to that island in 1897 being $70,185; in 1900, $412,610; in 1906, $665,277; and in 1908, $906,968. Japan has also increased rapidly her takings of this particular class of our exports, the total value of condensed milk exported to that country in 1898 being $76,100; in 1900, $30,435; in 1905, $437,862; and in 1908, $666,370. To China the exports of 1898 were $25,748; in 1904, $76,134; and in 1908, $87,034. To Mexico the growth has been rapid and largely coincidental with the increase in the number of Americans engaged in mining and other industrial enterprises in that country, the total value of milk exported to Mexico in 1897 being but $11,503; in 1900, $26,578; and in 1908, $79,023. Upon such distant and out of the way places as the Canary Islands, Liberia, Dutch East Indies, Korea, Ecuador, British and Dutch Guianas, Bermuda, and the various West Indian Islands show greater or less takings of this article, the number of countries to which condensed milk was sent in 1908 aggregating over 50.

OBEY THE LAW

Mayor-elect Carlo has made the announcement of his coming administration, the keynote as it were of his future policy—"Obey the Law." He explains this by saying that if the laws are not good they should be repealed, but until proven bad should be obeyed.

Mr. Carlo has hit the keynote of the complaint of many citizens that the law is not obeyed. His platform will meet with the hearty support of all law-abiding citizens regardless of party affiliations and will be supported gladly by the Gazette.

Janesville is not such a bad city morally, but there are many loopholes that can be stopped up and make it a far cleaner and better place to live in. First and foremost the liquor dealers should be shown clearly that the law is meant to be obeyed and this would in a great measure do away with other evils.

Mr. Carlo was elected Mayor of Janesville by a close margin, but this is all the more reason for his firm attitude on the question of the enforcement of the law. Any Mayor who takes the oath of office swears to see that the ordinances are enforced, but it is expected Mr. Carlo will go further and see that they are. Obey the law incoats with a popular sentiment.

Now that the joint assembly committee have finished their investigation of Isaac Stephenson's primary campaign expenses and incidentally brought out the fact that the reformers of the state have corrupted the game warden system and accomplished other evils never used by the oldtime "ring politicians," the senate is beginning its purty parade of witnesses to prove that the whole state of politics is rotten.

Senator La Follette was hailed with joy as a reformer by his fellow Senators in Washington when he tried to explain the purposes and results of his civil service examination system for census employees. The question is to be answered: what kind of an examination a scrub-woman must take, in "ice action" or must she demonstrate her ability to scrub clean, or what? Taking it all in all it made lots of fun for the other Senators.

Pittsburg ladies obeyed the request of their ministers and either did not wear their Easter bonnets to the church or took them off after they arrived. Strange to say, that there is some complaint of Janesville ladies not being so considerate and it has been suggested by several "Mere men" that the Gazette start a crusade in the interests of man in this direction.

It is not one bit too early to discuss that home-coming and fourth of July celebration if one is to be held. Spring will soon be here and even the small boy knows that the Fourth of July is only a trifle over two months away.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

READ THIS TO THE CHILDREN.

This is a fairy story—a true fairy story.

And, strangely enough, the little girl of this fairy tale is her own fairy, though she doesn't know it.

This fairy went to bed one night poor and awoke up the next morning worth $10,000. Doesn't that sound like some other fairy had waved his wand over this fairy while she slept?

Her name is Hazel—Hazel Kiegin—and she lives in South Omaha, Neb. She is twelve years old and is a good little girl, kind, gentle and helpful to all about her.

Hazel's parents formerly lived in Sioux City, and because Hazel when she was a little bit of a thing was so sweet and kind and gracious a man in that town who was a neighbor took a great fancy to the little girl, whom he called his "black haired fairy." Hazel Kiegin has black hair in long braids and twinkling black eyes.

Well—

Two years ago the Kiegin moved to South Omaha, and shortly after that the father died. Hazel's mother was obliged to take in washing in order to buy food for Hazel and her little brother.

Now, can you fancy a little fairy carrying big bundles of washing?

This black haired fairy did that. And some days the past winter the weather was very cold, and sometimes the bundles were heavy, but she never complained. She kept on smiling like a good little fairy, and everybody loved her.

And now she is an heiress. Her old friend, Mr. Matthews of Sioux City, bequeathed her the little fortune because she was such a sunny and kind little girl.

And Hazel says:

"I am so happy because mamma won't have to wash any more. She has rhumatism dreadfully, and sometimes she has to wash with one arm. It is awfully hard then, and it nearly breaks her back. She didn't use to have to wash."

You see, the good Sioux City man made no mistake about Hazel being a fairy.

Fairies do not care much about themselves. They are always trying to make other people happy. And that is why fairy Hazel Kiegin is happy. She makes others happy.

Oh, the fairy stories are not all in the story books, my dear!

ICE GORGE STOPS NIAGARA.

Voice of Falls Stilled and Great Damage Results.

Buffalo, N. Y., Apr. 12.—The voice of Niagara was mute yesterday for the second time in the memory of man. The first time was late in February, when, following a severe northerly blow, the falls ran dry. Now, following a severe southwester, the river is frozen solid from bank to bank.

Unprecedented weather has brought about unprecedented conditions. On Wednesday of last week the worst gale of the season and the most violent in the history of the weather bureau for April, was recorded and, following the lakos and the channel of the Niagara, left ruin in its wake. The solid ice fields of Lake Erie were churned from end to end and piled in a huge conglomerate mass at the lower end of the lake. Conservative estimates place the damage at $1,000,000.

THREE SISTERS TRAIN VICTIMS.

Iowa Girls Killed as They Walk on Illinois Central Tracks.

Dubuque, Ia., Apr. 12.—The Illinois Central "flyer" struck and instantly killed Anna, Mabel and Ruby, aged seven, eight and 11, respectively, daughters of Fred Forder, four miles west of here yesterday.

The girls were walking on the track toward the approaching train, but on account of a high wind they had their heads down and did not see the train. When the engineer realized that the girls did not hear the train, it was too late to stop.

Some Qualifications of Our Shingles

The Manufacturing—We have our own cedar timber holdings and mill in Robe, Wash., in which we manufacture only high grade cedar shingles, for our exclusive use. We spare no expense to make them the best it is possible to produce.

The Quality

Nothing but the whole product of the tree is used in the manufacture of our shingles. Practically all other shingles are made from by-products and do not have the general uniform appearance and length of life that will be found in our shingles. We do not kiln-dry our shingles near as much as the average shingle. Kiln-drying shortens the life of shingles, makes them brittle, light, uneven, and easy to split. Our shingles are tougher, wear longer, are not brittle and will not cause you trouble by splitting and cracking.

The Size

Kiln-dried shingles generally come very loosely packed and easily warp. Our shingles are closely packed and you get more shingles. They run so uniform that they need very little if any trimming. Other shingles must be trimmed, entailing more work, more expense, and then they do not lay even. Ask any carpenter who has laid our shingles and others and he will tell you the same. Our shingles are of a plump and uniform thickness.

The Guarantee

We guarantee our shingles to be strictly clear—not a knot in them. We have a reputation all over the country for having the best shingles, without any exception.

The Price

$4.00 per thousand. Some other shingles are cheaper, but cost more in the end, not overlooking the first cost of laying. Everyone who has used our shingles has only praise for them. Carpenters all say the best they ever laid.

Taking in All

When you consider our shingles are made from the whole product of the tree, doesn't it stand to reason that they will outlive those made from by-products, etc.? And the fact that they are more closely packed, more evenly sawed and of a uniform thickness gives you more shingles to the thousand and a saving in the expense of laying. Our shingles are the best and cheapest, quality considered, that can be obtained anywhere.

For Further Information

If you are going to need shingles write or call.

We will cheerfully furnish estimates on shingling costs. Insist on the brand: Best Shingle Co., stamped on every bundle.

GIRL, AFIRE LEAPS TO DEATH

Residents of Famous Berkshire Hills Society Resort Aid Sufferers—Three Tobacco Barns Burned at Mayfield, Ky.—"Night Riders" Suspected.Lenox, Mass., Apr. 12.—Fire in the heart of the business section of Lenox yesterday cost six lives, $300,000 and injured several persons.Four business blocks, two dwellings and two other structures were destroyed in a section bounded by Franklin, Main, Housatonic and Church streets.The fire is believed to have started in the "Clifford" building, from "spontaneous combustion."

Dead and Injured.

The dead:
Edward C. Ventres, electrician.
Mrs. Edward C. Ventres.
Miss Leslie Ventres, aged 12 years.
Miss Alice French, bookkeeper.
Miss Isabel Cook, bookkeeper.
Miss Mary Sparks, school teacher.Of the injured Mrs. Catherine Root and her two sons, George and Arthur, were severely burned.The fortunate shift of wind saved the public library and the fashionable Curtis hotel. In the hotel there were several Easter parties from New York and Boston.The loss of life occurred in the Cliff-ford building where the blaze started, and resulted primarily from a series of explosions among the turpentine, paints, oils and dynamite stored in the cellar of the James Clifford & Sons Company, hardware dealers.

Girl Abloze; Leaps to Death.

The death of Miss Alice French was one of the pitiful tragedies of the morning. While the fire in the Cliff-ford block was at its height a woman was seen to climb out of the flame-filled room on to a veranda on the second story with her night clothing and her hair ablaze. Staggering to the railing the woman leaped to the sidewalk beneath, landing in a heap with in five or six feet of the blazing walls.Some of the horrified onlookers attempted to rush in to drag her out, but the intense heat drove them back and not until the flames had practically died out, several hours later, was the body recovered.While none of the beautiful summer residences that have made this Berkshire town famous the country over, were threatened, many prominent New York and Boston society people were at the Curtis hotel, which was at one time threatened. They were prompt in their aid to the sufferers."Night Riders" Burn Tobacco.
Mayfield, Ky., Apr. 12.—Fire of incendiary origin destroyed four large tobacco warehouses here yesterday.The warehouses were owned by Lewis & Gordon, Richard Waldrop, Sherrill
& Barnett and the American Snuff Company. These firms are independent and have been buying a great deal of loose tobacco.The loss will reach about $25,000.
There was about 200,000 pounds of tobacco lost.The fire was not discovered until under full headway and the tobacco is still burning to-day. There is no clue to the incendiaries, but "night riders" are suspected.Indian, W. Va., Apr. 12.—Fire which for several hours threatened total destruction of the shops of the Western Maryland railroad, was subdued after a loss of $15,000.

The Pig Race.

I don't callate that I ever had a better run down the bay than I done that morning. 'Twas a fair wind, and a smooth sea; not the sick, greasy kind, but with little blue waves chasing each other and going "spat!

spat!" under the Dora Bassett's quarter as she danced over 'em. And that's just what she did—danced. There wasn't any hog-wallowing for her; she just picked up her skirts, so to speak, and tripped along—towing the little landing skiff astern of her—like a 16-year-old girl going to a surprise party.

An early July morning on the bay down our way is good enough for yours truly, Solomon Pratt. Take it with the wind and water like I've said;

with the salt smell from the marshes drifting out from the shore, mixed up with the smell of the pitch-pines on the bluffs, and me in the stern of a good boat with the tiller in my hand and a pipe in my face—well, all right!

That's my natural life; and I don't need no book to tell me so, neither.

The Heavens enjoyed it, and they'd ought to. 'Twas clear then,

though it got hazy over to the eastward later on. But then, as I say, 'twas clear, and you could see the schooners strung out on the skyline, some full up, with their sails shining white in the sun, and others down over the edge, with only their topsails showing.

For art, but dead ahead, just as if somebody had dipped their finger in the bluing bottle and smouched it along the bottom of the sky, was the Wapatomic shore, and away aft, right over the stern, was the Trout lighthouse, like a white chalk mark on a yellow fence, the fence being the high sand bank behind it.

The Twins laid back and soaked in the scenery. They unbuckled their jackets and took long breaths. They actually forgot to smoke, which was a sort of miracle, as you might say, and even Hartley, who had been bluer than a spoiled mackerel all the morning, braced up and got real chipper. By and by they resurrected that book of theirs and had what you might call a Natural Life drink. I never see printing that went to a person's head the way that book seemed to go to theirs.

I judged 'twas kind of light and gassy reading and naturally it filled the empty places same as you'd fill a balloon.

Everybody was happy but Lord

James, and I could see that he wasn't easy in his mind. He sat about mid-ships of the cockpit and hung onto the thwart with both hands, like he was afraid 'twould bust loose and leave him adrift. If the Dora Bassett had struck a derelict or something and gone down sudden I'll bet they'd have dredged up that Hopper valet and the thwart together. And then they'd have had to pry 'em apart. His lordship wasn't used to water, unless 'twas to mix with something else.

to me.

CASTLE WILLIAM IS TODAY ONLY A WATERMARK.

Castle William is the historical watermark of New York bay. Its interesting reading, it was built in the time when the shot from a frigate without accomplishing much damage. As a fort designed to withstand the bombardment of a modern battleship or even gunboat, it would stand as much chance of survival as the statue of liberty.

Still, this solid old relic, which is destined to remain a watermark as long as the tower of Newport has stood, has been useful as well as ornamental as a relic of the fighting force of the past. It is the federal prison, where are confined for short terms such deserters and offenders against martial rules and regulations as are captured in the vicinity of become one more post, like Ellis Island, dedicated to the transaction of government business. As a monument to the military spirit of the past, however, Castle William will long remain in somber isolation overlooking the bay, the harbor and the busy city of New York.

Where Robin Feels at Home.
"For some time past," writes a correspondent from Nantwich, "a robin has used our house for meals. We have only to open the window and call 'Hob,' when he flies at once into the room."

His favorite dining room is the nursery, and if the window is closed he will try every other window, and when he has found one open will fly through the house to the nursery. If he finds all the windows closed he flies about until he has found a room where someone is sitting, when he will tap at the window until it is opened. — London Daily Mail.

Law Suit Over a Hen.
A lawsuit about the ownership of a hen has just been brought to a close at Hamburg, after a whole year, by the unexpected death of the bird. The value of the hen was only 75 cents, but the law costs have amounted to a large sum.

Relief Wanted

Look closely at the illustration below. Not a very beautiful shape for a foot, is it? It is the result of a gradual weakening and breaking down of the muscles, ligaments and bone construction which support the arch of the foot. The cause of such a condition of "fallen arch" is the result of excessive standing or walking, the wearing of poorly constructed shoes; and sometimes the rapid taking on of flesh may overload the arch of the foot. Not much pleasure in standing or walking all day at one's occupation with the feet in such condition as this. What pain it must cause! Pain in the arch, in the calf of the leg, above the knee and even reaching to the thigh, because of such an unnatural condition of the foot.

This Is Not A Very Unusual and Rare Case

of fallen arch, but thousands of people are afflicted just the same in all walks of life, while a great many more suffer from arches just beginning to break down. What is it worth to give a person so afflicted foot comfort? Ask him and you will find he will be willing to pay any price to be relieved. If a five dollar shoe would give a little more comfort than a three dollar one, he would pay it. Or if a custom made shoe two or three times the price will guarantee him ease in walking, he will pay it, because anything that will relieve the suffering he will esteem a luxury and pay the price which luxuries demand.

But Can You Fit a Factory or Custom Made Shoe to This Foot?

so that it will relieve the sufferer? Look at the foot. It's so badly over-arched that it bends inwardly, giving the appearance of a broken ankle. It's so convex that the middle of the foot would almost make a hole in the ground. Would you put a shoe on that foot without even attempting to restore it to a semblance of normality? How would shoes look after being worn a few days? They would be broken down and of no corrective benefit to the foot—just merely a covering.

The Arch of the Foot Must Be Held and Firmly Sustained

until nature herself comes to the rescue and effects the remedy. It won't do to try to raise the arch instantly to its full height. The elevating process must be gradual, or the process itself will be as painful as the disease. Therefore a proper arch support which will prop up the foot just a little at first and then can be raised by the wearer just a little more and so on until after weeks or months, perhaps the normal height has been attained, is the one thing needful. It is simply impossible to think that an arch which has been falling for years can be raised to its normal height immediately by any arch supporting appliance. It can't be done. Nor must it be attempted; else the wearer will become discouraged from the start. Go at it scientifically and watch the results.

Watch for our next ad. We will show and tell you how to relieve such a case of fallen arch as the one shown above.
